CLOSER LOOK: Maybe you can forgive the last 2 at EIP; after all, that Aug. 23 run was her first on turf (showed speed before fading) and July 8 there she faced straight maidens; if you forgive those first 2 you're left with a couple decent efforts at CD including a 2nd at this level (when claimed); so maybe returning to dirt and this level can get her back on track...maybe; 4 of 6 sibs to race are winners including Glacial (7-1-0-2, $91K, 1 G3 SP).

Yet to do much in 5 starts though that all came vs. straight maidens and her best result (3rd) came the one time she ran on dirt; that said, she wasn't really a factor that day; gets an important drop and she's sure worked well over this track so maybe getting a chance to race over this track will be a boon; 2 of 5 sibs to race are winners including Glamour Girl (19-1-4-5, $137K).

No factor at any point in her debut at ELP a couple months ago, but not only can you always forgive a first run note it came on turf and vs. straight maidens; given time since and returns with the most important drop in the game for a trainer who's been terrific with this class move; switch to dirt might help, too; certainly eligible to vault forward, though we still don't know if there's any talent here, do we?; 2 sibs are both winners including Mr Kafoo (14-1-2-4, $75K, in Dubai).

Broke slowly in her debut at CD last month and never got involved; as noted with others you can always be forgiving about a first run; it also came vs. straight maidens and she broke slowly; still, she was 85-1 so it's not as if much was expected; gets a critical drop which might help, though obviously it better help a bunch and she need take a big step forward; 3 of 5 sibs are winners including Trademark (33-7-3-2, $1.2 million, 3 SWs including 1 G2, 4 SPs including 1 G2, 2 G3s).

Toss those turf tries and you're left with a couple decent dirt efforts; in fact, 1 of those, which was her best, came at this level at this type of grip; tired some routing at ELP Aug. 8 but she's been freshened, returns to dirt and drops with a bullet work in tow and all that might add up to a seeing her best; lone sib is Federalism (6-2-0-0, $106K, all on turf).

Initial work in the summer of 2024 encouraged but the pattern since is a bit worrisome as then came a dull run at CD last Oct. 27, 10 months off and then a dull return at ELP Aug. 23; in her defense, not only was there the long layoff she was trying turf for the first time AND facing straight maidens; nice there's no layoff this time and Eurlon returns her to dirt with a class drop, a move with which he has super numbers; smart works for this encourage, too; 2 sibs have yet to win from 8 and 3 starts, r respectively.

Debut here a year ago wasn't very pretty; while you can always forgive a first run it's a bit disconcerting she hasn't been since so there's a long, long layoff to overcome; at least been working well and drops for her return and while the drop might hel p we still don't know if there's any talent here; lone sib was off the board in only start.

Switching to the main didn't do him any favors in first KY start and he faced a rather modest group when runner-up at Cnl on 9/3; double the field size for any of last three and his ledger wouldn't look more enticing.

Finishing second at Churchill when last seen coming from the back. By Into Mischief, dam was 2-for-11 on turf, siblings are 0-for-11 on turf. That pedigree says stamina shouldn't be an issue even if the female family hasn't done much on grass. Should be competitive.

Got swallowed up in the Woodbine Mile against top-class turf milers, finishing eighth after showing early speed. By Curlin (11% turf sire), dam was 2-for-11 on turf, siblings are 4-for-11 on turf. The equipment change could be key and if he can save some thing for the stretch run at a distance that should suit him better. Live longshot if the pace cooperates.

Tried stakes company at Kentucky Downs finishing seventh, which came on the heels of a tough beat at Ellis. By Laoban (11% dirt route sire), dam was 0-for-4, siblings are 1-for-9. That breeding has stamina and the way he's been finishing his races sugges ts the two-turn trip will play to his strengths. If he can get a clean trip and avoid traffic trouble, he'll be dangerous.

Popped at nice odds to win at Kentucky Downs last out after some inconsistent form earlier in the year. By Into Mischief, dam was 1-for-6, siblings are 1-for-10. Came up a bit short in the Tapit Stakes at Kentucky Downs after a layoff, finishing third with a good Beyer but not quite having enough kick when it counted. Ran an even third at Churchill Downs in allowance company after chasing the winner throughout, which was a nice rebound from a clunker. By English Channel (57% turf sire), dam was 0-for-3 on turf, siblings are 2-for-7 on turf. If he can improve on that last effort and get a clean trip, he's got an upset chance at a price.

Got outrun in the Woodbine Mile against top-class milers, finishing fourth and never really threatening, but that came after two straight wins at lesser levels where he was dominant. Dam was 0-for-2 on turf, siblings are 0-for-2 on turf. Hard to see him turning the tables on these after getting outclassed last time.

Faded badly at Kentucky Downs after pressing the pace, finishing sixth. By Twirling Candy, dam was 0-for-9, siblings are 2-for-5 on turf. The breeding suggests he should handle two turns but his running style doesn't inspire confidence at this distance. Needs to prove last time was a fluke, but right now he looks like a horse searching for form. -Garret Cocchiarella
