CLOSER LOOK: First 2 starts weren't much, but she showed signs of life in start No. 3; in her defense, you can always forgive a first run and start No. 2 came in slop; could be she's getting things figured out and has found her proper level with enough speed to keep the leaders in her sights; still, another move forward is required; 5 of 8 sibs are winners including J C's Not Brown (28-4-3-3, $106K) and War Terminator (19-1-2-3, $109K).

Debut wasn't bad as she showed speed before tiring to end up 5th of 10; trouble is, that came on synthetic so she remains an unknown on this ground; the good news is daddy was a multiple G1 SW on dirt and HOY so she's bred for it and that lone run came v.s. straight maidens; it also came over 2 months ago so there's a layoff to go along with new footing and new surroundings; barn has super numbers with this class move.

First 4 starts weren't very pretty but off a layoff she dropped to this level, moved to dirt and sprinting and perked up considerably to be a sharp 2nd; that came over this track, too, so that's most encouraging; back fairly quickly and maybe that last i is a sign she's getting things figured out...maybe, dam was a winner.

First 3 starts in 2025 were so-so and there's been a layoff after every start; however, he came back here March 8 in a race like this and with Lasix and blinkers and looked much better; could be those plus experience and maturity have him ready to turn the corner and it's nice that for the first time after a race there's no layoff; worked well twice since; 3 of 4 sibs are winners including Going for Gold (17-3-5-2, $144K).

 Exits a best-last-race Beyer and new Top as she produced a career-improving speed figure pattern; lone runner in the field to have raced 1st at the 1st call; she can control things up top which makes her doubly dangerous; wish this jockey-trainer combo were not just 1 for the last 13 together; view as a speedy contender for win honors.
