CLOSER LOOK: 8 of his 10 wins were produced racing 1st at the 1st call; has speed in a race filled with it; 2-for-6 in stakes but today would be his 1st ever graded stakes try; why not try it off a new Beyer Top at today's distance; drew post position 5 today in a much easier LRL-100K stakes at today's 7 furlong distance; this would be his 1st ever start in New York; exits a winning key race defeating the show and 6th-place finishers next-out 93-81 Beyer LRL-100K stakes and starter allowance winners; defeated the 3-back show finisher who posted a 95 speed figure in his next-out PRX-optional claiming victory; view as an exotics possibility.

All 6 wins when 1-2-3 at the 1st call; projects to sit just off a hot pace; was scratched for this; was also entered in a much easier LRL-100K stakes at today's 7 furlong distance; has to avenge the 2-back loss to Point Dume at today's stamina test; beat the December 20 show finisher who Beyered 82 in a next-out LRL-optional claiming win. -Art Gropper

CLOSER LOOK: Also entered in a mile stakes at LRL this same day; that's her home track so it's easy to assume she might stay home and chase that prize; but if she were to come here that would be a thumbs-up from her connections, saying they would forego a chance to stay home and likely be favored to instead ship elsewhere and face tougher; the good news is she shipped here before a year ago and ran very well so she can handle the track and trip; as noted, these are tougher, but efforts vs. opens foes at MTH and LRL show her quality, and you don't win 7 of 10 by accident anywhere.

Like the rail gal she's also entered in a mile stakes at LRL this same day; may not be quite as strong as the rail mare but she ended 2025 with a bang, winning 3 straight including a stakes at this distance at LRL; makes first start of the year and as with the rail mare it would speak of some confidence to come here instead of facing somewhat lesser at LRL; hasn't run here but she's handled other tracks so odds are she'll handle this place; main issue is whether she's good enough.

Knocked heads with some of the best of her peers and often more than held her own; that includes being 3 for 3 here including a G2 win last May; question is whether she's the same gal; after a real good turf sprint last August at KD the pattern gets a bit choppy as she gave way in a turf G1 (which is excusable), was gone 3 1/2 months, dueed and fizzled in her GP return (a G2 at this trip) and has been gone another 2-plus months; again, at least you know she loves it here and it's nice they keep her at this level so maybe it can add up to a bounce-back...maybe.

Her overall form since the fall of 2024 has been smart, the lone dull run being a route at CNL last summer; but she bounced back from that maybe better than ever with a string of good races including some good work here; in fact, she's done very well here so the site is no bother; and while she's up in class note when last seen she beat a very tough fellow Marylander in the rail mare in a stakes Nov. 22; hasn't run since so there's a layoff to ponder but it speaks well they shipped here as she's been in Florida and they could have stayed there for something, right? -Michael Hammersly

Came with a gaudy price tag so somebody saw something they liked; validated their judgement right off the bat with a big debut win at TAM; that debut came routing, too, no small matter so she's shown she can route; of course, with her pedigree routing should be her wheelhouse; one concern is that the Beyer came back light, but hey it was just her first run so there's ample room for growth and it's a great sign a top trainer promptly takes her from a TAM maiden and ships here for a G2 so they apparently have some expectations.

After some modest form elsewhere she appears to have found a home here; 2nd in the mile Busanda and then a winner of the mile Ruthless; all her work so far, however, has come shorter around one turn so there are some new hurdles but she's certainly headed the right way and with a Triple Crown winner as her daddy and a G1 Preakness winner as her dam sire you wouldn't think today's added ground will be too big an obstacle.

Maiden vs. winners; there is some quality here, though, as she just ran 3rd to a nice Baffert in a stakes at CNL; still, she's facing not only winners but some proven stakes types; well beaten by Two Bits here in the fall and faces her again, but she isn't even one of the favorites; of course, Pletcher isn't in the HOF and wins lots of Eclipses because he puts his horses in the wrong spots so that gives some optimism, but this still seems a bit of a reach.

After some decent work at FG including an SP she shipped West to New Mexico and was a credible 3rd in the Sunland Park Oaks, chasing a nice Baffert gal; now asked to ship back across the country; not only can the shipping be taxing this group looks tougher than what she's been facing so the water is deeper and she must also deal with new surroundings; at least is proven routing.

Looks as though she's turned the corner; claimed off a game maiden sprint win here Feb. 12 she next faced winners and won in a romp; that said, it was sprinting, in mud and vs. lesser than she faces here so there are new hurdles to be sure, but again she's on the upswing, hails from a barn pushing all the right buttons and is certainly bred to run on.

Stalked and kept on gamely to beat NY-breds at a mile here March 7; has tactical speed and versatility to give her rider options and she comes here seemingly on the upswing; that said, these are tougher and it's a new, longer trip but she's pretty much fired every time and you can't blame them for giving her a shot at these deeper waters after all that good work vs. state-breds.

Maiden vs. winners; her only 2 starts at GP weren't bad; those were at a mile and that plus her pedigree say this longer trip is within her reach; that said, this new, longer trip is being tried while she's way up in class, in new surroundings and with n o help from the draw so the hurdles are not insignificant; but hey, Joseph Jr. could have left her in Florida for something else so the fact he shipped her here is somewhat encouraging. -Michael Hammersly

Stakes winner at 6 furlongs is asked to pass the distance test exiting a New York bred stakes loss and now tackling much stiffer graded stakes competition; projects to stalk the pace then hopes to outlast the closers; the debut runner-up finisher graduated next out in a SAR-MSW with a 66 Beyer.

Hammered down to 1-2 odds for the TAM maiden breaker and seems to be shooting high here although the trainer's 24% win mark with graded stakes starters since 2025 adds to the appeal that he does in fact fit with this kind; major concerns about 9 furlongs as he tired 2-back at shorter.
