First 2 starts were smart wins at CD so she showed quality from the jump; cost $500K so it's no surprise as there are likely expectations; next tried a G2 route there Nov. 29 but after stalking gave way; could be that distance and level was asking a bit much, at least at that point of her career; freshened since, back to dirt with some good works in tow; Walsh adds blinkers, a move with which he's had ample success.

Got her diploma here last fall; OK, it came vs. maiden claimers but at least it shows she handles this place and her form since has seen a nice uptick; Beyers are trending the right way, too; worked nicely here last week and Joel, who was up for her good 2nd at OP Feb. 8, gets back aboard; still likely needs to find a few more lengths but that isn't out of reach.

Won a stakes here last fall so she handles the track just fine; it's a longer trip than she's seen before but the way she's finished up going shorter hints today's 7th furlong won't be a big hurdle; was an OK 3rd in a stakes at GP March 14 but the 2 who beat her are awfully quick and that was her first start in 2 1/2 months; eligible to improve with that run behind her and the return to a place she likes, and a snappy work since encourages, too. -Michael Hammersly

CLOSER LOOK: That was a nice intro to turf by colt whose siblings include one turf winner from three to try the surface; that turf-winning sibling won first pair on the lawn; note the considerable tote action for first infield spin, and that the 5th runner in there returned to score at same track and trip while boosting his Beyer by 8 points; the 2/22 winner returned to have lots of trouble in a grassy stakes and just missed matching the 2/22 Beyer despite the traffic; should be an easy trip from this berth for $330 K yearling buy.

The 10/26 effort was made extra special by the fact that those racing 1-2-3 in the early going ended up 3-1-2 when it counted; the pace in the last start, at TP, was sorta lively, so no surprise that he finished up well as the even-money choice; 4 months of additional maturity and back on the lawn for this; two siblings include a winner of only start and another who romped first out and then ran 2nd in the Gr. He drew the short straw and had to contest the pace from the inside in latest while his early pace fore retreated to last in the end; gelding can certainly stand-up on the lawn yet he doesn't seem to finish with the great punch that wins grass races; still I won't rule out an improvement with a different trip today, but plenty of finesse is needed.

Fair to believe that he needed latest, and tiz entirely possible this guy will need another one; those racing 1-2-3 early ended up 12-9-11 in the 2/8 affair so the race shape wasn't working against this guy; can see a significant step forward as a possibilty in 2nd try as a 3yo and there is a quartet of interim works in print toward that end.

Pair of steady efforts to begin career by son of dam who was 1-1-1/5 on the green while lone sib. was a close 2nd in only grass run to date; wide berth awaits now but he figures fit enough after pair of distance tries in past 60 days; improvement needed but sire was a multiple Gr. I winner on the lawn so there is plenty of hope despite the marooned post. -George Cottrell
