CLOSER LOOK: Asked to go long successfully off the bench twice, and now a third time; likely has a whole lot of upside considering her relative inexperience and noteworthy challenges to date; worked steadily for much of the late summer and through the fall so there is at least SOME foundation under her; suddenly it is April and no visible works since 2/23 AS OF press time; won't rule out.

Many like a runner who closed significant ground in one race and then showed good speed in the next, or vice versa; obvious drawback is that it was 3 months ago; still recognize upside potential in this corner while also contemplating the 4 weeks between works prior to 3/6; McPeck 6-for-last-20 with runners going long on real dirt after 75-365 days off; buy all of the place tickets you want at a deflated price.

She ran into tough customers in each start this season and KY-bred has yet to race for a claiming tag while steadily holding her own; mom won a pair going long and a sibling took the Gr.
