CLOSER LOOK: Can't know for sure whether the light has gone on within this gal to date but it is noteworthy that the 1-2-3 finishers in latest were 8-6-7 after 4 furlongs; can forgive most any debut, and then going long on dirt in 2nd start was a big ask; wonder if s he can rate while saving ground and have anything left when back at shorter trip.

Sports top Beyer earned to date by any of these but would still say that THIS is the telling class reduction vs. last-out move in with high-priced sellers; 7-6 early ran 1-2 up in NY and the last-out runner-up dropped FIFTEEN points off of her Beyer when a narrow winner next out; barn historically strong with steep class plunges (30%).

Sire so far just 2-for-39 with firsters and this is first foal from a dam who was dull in all 5 starts; 2nd dam had good speed and was best going long; minimal work-tab showing for barn 1-for-13 with firsters over 5 years (won here in Feb. @ $18.80 mutue I) , just a trio of which were less than 35-1; cover in multi-race gimmicks.

Sire scores with 13% of debuters and mom was 3-for-7 on the track; a sib won a trio of turf routes but 4 others combined for a single career win to date; month gap in the works prior to 9/24 but otherwise pretty workman-like; barn 3-for-last-25 with firs ters. -George Cottrell

CLOSER LOOK: This colt did beat over half the field home in both of his sprints; we can toss that route try two back, right? distance Tommy of 403 hints at sprint ability; we would like to see more than one work but then again this guy looks like he is running into s hape; we do like how he faced full fields in all of his starts; we bet this guy is a solid price; not our favorite for the blue ribbon but exotics another matter.

Broke on top in his debut and then did little to nothing; Irad got a leg up in said debut and this colt did get play; did something go awry hence the time off? two of six sibs beat winners (1.5 million and 367K); this horse is working at the Fair Grounds but runs here; a few things to like.

Is by a 14%debut sire; his dam went 6-3-1-0 and earned 180K; lone sibling is 6-3-2-0 and earned 263K in Japan; Durant homebred sold for 775K; works are just great including some longer ones; his most recent drill is impossible to miss and 2nd best of 13 6; we love this outside draw for a maiden; just lots and lots to like and the top of our betting pyramid. -Scott Ehlers
