CLOSER LOOK: Has something no one else in here has - turf experience; it was pretty decent, too; sure, she was no match for a big winner but she showed speed and finished well clear of the rest; nice they wheel her back fairly quickly to get another crack at turf before racing moves to turf-less LRC and the barn is super 2nd time out; lone sib is 1-0-0-0 in Dubai.

CLOSER LOOK: Ran to the 62-1 debut odds when finishing behind Baby T outrun throughout; the way he broke slowly and was outrun early a lot more distance than 4.5 furlongs or today's 5F will be needed to ultimately see best form; the good news is his post-race 3 furlong work is the best on the tab suggesting we will see a strong 2nd time out improvement.

CLOSER LOOK: Of course, the big wrinkle here is the 15-plus furlong trip; only one (Rimprotector) has raced this distance (though Goldeneye ran 2 1/16 miles once); so, this is new to most of them, including this guy; at least his last win came going 10fs, on this course, no less, but the pattern since (so-so race/layoff/so-so race/layoff/so-so race) is a bit disconcerting; not only that, he's up in class while trying this long trip so the hurdles are many and not insignificant unless the force is truly with him.

Has gone 12fs a couple times at least and didn't run badly so at least that hints he might not be out of his element going this far; it's also good news he comes here off a solid 2nd in a CD 9f turf spot so he comes here doing fairly well; first start for a new barn and that gives you the impression they changed hands and locale specifically for this race; still, there's not only the distance question, there's the class level.

Came home smartly to win a nice 9f optional claimer here May 1; that was just his 2nd start after a long layoff, too, so he has the right to improve; as with most of his rivals the distance is uncharted waters but a decent 11f try at CD a year ago and a daddy who won going 12fs hint this distance isn't out of his reach; the class level is another question but he's doing well, handles this place and has a bunch of solid works since that last win.

They thought enough of him to try the G3 San Luis Rey at 12fs here March 21 and he didn't run terribly, particularly when you note he had considerable in the stretch; showed current form with a big 10f win here May 22 so he's seemingly on the upswing; gr and sire and damsire were both 12f winners so there's stamina in the pedigree and all 3 career wins have come here.

From a class standpoint he towers over these, having been facing the best turfers around, including some of the best in the world in BCs, and more than holding his own; had no chance in that G1 at CD last time out when stymied into the lane; has returned home to a course he relishes with some solid works to indicate no ill effects from the trip to Ky.; it's most encouraging they thought enough of him, as an 8yo, to ship to CD to face some of the best turfers in the country; there are 2 concerns, one being his age and all those furlongs and, of course, a distance he's never tried.

The only one in here who's tried this trip, running 3rd in each of the 2 times (though Goldeneye ran 2 1/16 miles once); comes off a game SW at TUP going 11fs so he's doing well and, as noted, is a stayer; even so, while he's not facing a bunch of monsters (except Gold Phoenix) the water remains deeper than what he's accustomed to, having been fairly well beaten in a number of optional claimers on the SoCal circuit the past few years, and surely deeper than what he faced at TUP; but hey, he at least comes here doing well.

Has won going 12fs and note a 2 1/16-mile try at KD so that gives him a leg up on most of these in terms of the distance; there's something else on the asset side of the ledger - he has some speed; that might well translate to him making the running (and doing so slowly to save fuel), or at least being close-up from the start should someone else want those duties; has run well on this course, too; all that said, the pattern coming into this (dull race/layout/2 dull races) doesn't exactly get the pulse racing but as you can see there are a few positives to lean on.

Last 2 starts beyond a mile, after that fall/winter break, were decent so he comes here doing well; as with most of the others he's in uncharted waters in terms of the distance, though he's also being tested with a class hike; that 2nd here last time out May 22 was nice, though the guy who beat him and was pulling away from him (Living Life) is in against him again, and the way both finished doesn't it look as though 'Life might have a better time with the added ground?; quite possibly, though at least some speed here can have him in it from the start. -Michael Hammersly

Ranked behind Cupid Cowboy as his debut saw him break widest; has to overcome another ground losing draw for this; rider change is a plus for a trainer 2 for the last 8 with maiden 2nd time starters; an improved effort is expected for this; view as an exotics possibility.
